SCHOLARSHIP
WINNER ESSAY

Caleb Schentzel, son of Kurt & Stephanie Schentzel

“What industry or opportunity would entice you to return to a rural community after completing your education and why?”

To be able to return to a rural community and be able to work with student athletes as a trainer and volunteer coach would be a dream come true. I grew up in a small town and attended a small school and would love to be able to come back to the same type of safe, rural community where everyone knows and supports each other.

Athletics has been a major influence on my life and I am very grateful for the support I had from my community while growing up. There is all of this support in smaller communities because everyone knows each other. They are all friendly and they love to see people in that community succeed. For instance, my basketball team has not done very well for several years. Finally, we are starting to improve, and at every game, everyone in the community comes out and cheers and supports us. If I could coach and be a trainer in that sort of community and have that type of atmosphere at every game, I would be thrilled. Being in a small community is different than going somewhere in a big city where no one knows who you are.

I am also grateful for all of my coaches who have made the choice to be here. Being in a small community makes it easier for them to get to know me and my teammates and they know everything that is going on. We wouldn't have been able to develop the same close relationships with our coaches if we lived in a big city with more kids and more problems. My coaches saw my potential and challenged me to work hard, set goals and never give up. They shaped me into the man I am today. Not only did they coach me on the playing field, but they also taught me some life lessons that have helped me off the field as well.

If I were able to come back to a small community, I feel like I would be able to influence a lot of kids and shape them into great people. I would do the same thing my coaches did for me and encourage kids to work hard and train them to have the right mindsets, not only on the playing field, but also in the classroom and in everyday life.

UPDATE SERIES RECORDINGS

TV premiere season is just around the corner! Setting a series recording on your Cloud DVR can help you juggle fall activities with watching your favorite shows.

In July we realigned our Cable TV channel lineup to group similar programming and offer all channels in HD (when available). With some channels moving please check your series recordings before the premiere season starts.

To view your current Series Recording Rules press List or DVR List on your remote (located under the power button) three times. Use this list as a reminder of which shows you would like to record and on which network you can find them. Once you have established which shows you want to record, you should delete your previous Series Recording Rules for a particular show before setting a new one (in many cases, the system will require it).

To set a new Series Recording Rule, highlight the program in the on-screen guide and press the red Record button on the remote. The recording options will display. You can choose One-Time, Series or Reminder. For more detailed instructions, a Remote Guide is available at <https://jamesvalley.com/residential/cable-tv-resources/>

Programs set to start this fall will show up on the guide a number of days in advance. We will print many premiere dates in our newsletter next month, but you can also visit www.tvguide.com/tv-premiere-dates/. The page is regularly updated, so it will include premieres coming up in August.

To add Cloud DVR call us today and your 1st 3 months are FREE!

JVT SPONSORS BLOOD DRIVE

Thank you to all who participated in our Blood Drive – it was a great success! Forty-two people registered to donate and 39 were able to give. Nine gave blood on the automated 2RBC machine which collects two units of red blood cells during the donation, so a total of 48 products were collected.

All participants (whether they were able to donate or not) registered to win a $100 credit on their JVT account. Congrats to Lorrie Weber
